

America 250 A REVOLUTIONARY PERSPECTIVE

WHAT REVOLUTION?

Systemic Racism, Sexism, Culturecide and Genocide from America's Beginning

Join us for a conversation with Dina and Keala, passionate advocates for Native rights, culture, history and spirituality.

Keala Kelley is an award-winning documentary filmmaker, journalist, writer and activist living on Hawai'i Island. Her works address the critical links between cultural, environmental and spiritual survival in the movement for Hawaiian self-determination, and for territorial and political autonomy. Keala is the author of "Our Rights to Self-Determination: A Hawaiian Manifesto" (2022). Her documentary, "Noho Hewa: The Wrongful Occupation of Hawai'i," has received international film festival awards, and is widely taught in courses focusing on Indigenous Peoples, colonization, Hawaiian sovereignty, and militarism.

Dina Gilio-Whitaker is Assistant Director of the California Indian Culture and Sovereignty Center at California State University San Marcos. She teaches on environmentalism and American Indians, traditional ecological knowledge, religion and philosophy, Native women's activism, and decolonization. Dina is co-author with Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz of "All the Real Indians Died Off: And 20 Other Myths About Native Americans" (2016), "As Long as Grass Grows: The Indigenous Fight for Environmental Justice from Colonization to Standing Rock" (2019), and "Who Gets to be Indian? Ethnic Fraud and Other Difficult Conversations about Native American Identity" (2025)

JOIN US MAY 7 4pm ET

LIVE STREAMING DISCUSSION

As the Federal government celebrates the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, we are exploring true history. Did you know that the Declaration of Independence asserted that the king "has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions"? Or that the Union's first president, George Washington, was given the name 'Town Destroyer' by members of the Iroquois confederacy?

Click icon to join